

Rev. Earnest A. Hickerson, Jr.

Rev. Ernest A. Hickerson, Jr. has faithfully served as an associate pastor since 1995, marriage and relationship facilitator since 1997, while being bi-vocational in his calling. Rev. Hickerson has earned a Bachelors of Arts Degree in Biblical Studies, Associate Arts Degree in Business Management, certified and facilitated in disciplines of Integrated Conflict Management and Equal Employment Office of Civil Rights.

Rev. Hickerson has served in many capacities as an associate pastor over 25 years. Rev. Hickerson serves as the Men's Ministry Leader/Facilitator and Couples Ministry Leader/Facilitator, and has served as Pastor of Worship and Protocol, supervisor and trainer of ministers, and as a youth pastor.

Rev. Hickerson's love for servant hood is defined by the passage found in 1 Cor. 13:13, "And now abide faith, hope, and love, these three; but the greatest of these is love," and his Grandfather's quote, "Man at his best is still but a servant." Rev. Hickerson is married to the former Lesia M. Williams.
