I am a native Washingtonian. I received my education in Charles County MD, Ft. Washington MD, and Atlanta GA. I am married to Gregory Harrison, have four children, (Avanti (Alex), Ashlee, Armani (Sheteria), and Aaron), I am the Yaya to six Grandkisses (Jermain, Leilani, Ali, Xzavier and Tatianna).

I am a born again Christian and chose to follow and live for Christ for the rest of my days. My calling in Ministry is sharing Love to those who have been and are incarcerated as well as to spread the Love of Jesus to everyone I meet in and out of season.

I Thank God for His Love, Faithfulness, Truth, Forgiveness, Grace and Mercy, and I strive to follow and maintain these attributes of God by pressing toward the mark for the prize of the High Calling of God in Christ Jesus. I am a Praise and Worshiper unapologetically. My life scripture is Isaiah 40:31.

I am now a retiree from Federal Government after 32 years of service and own a Cleaning Business for 28 years. I enjoy reading God's word, spending time at home with family and friends, riding the motorcycle with my husband, fishing and making various arts and crafts, sewing, knitting, and crocheting.
